For the New Era.

A Farewell Token.

Fare thee well, thou best and dearest,
Cherished one, fare thee well;
Thou goest cold and distant thou appearest,
Thy praise o'er my song shall swell.

I'll sing thy praises, as of yore
I sang, but ah! each passing stain
Will breathe of pleasure gone before,
And hopes that ne'er may wake again.

How little dream'd I in the hour,
When life was cloudless, bright and gay,
A scowling tempest thou wouldst lower,
And sweep its every joy away.

I little dream'd, in bliss abiding,
Of thy words so fondly spoken;
I little dream'd, in those caressing Woman's vows, how swiftly broken.

But farewell, and adieu, Unheeded, lonely—on my road,
I must roam—but ah! I'm weary,
For life is now a galling load.

Sharon, 1856. J. W.

From Gleeson's Pictorial.

A Travelling Adventure.

BY FRANCIS A. DUNN.

"Glorious Rome!" exclaimed Miss Julia Brandon, as she leaned back in the travelling carriage, beside her gaily old guardian, Ebenezer Brown Esq., Alderman of London, as it slowly rolled upon its way from Teracini to Fondi, on the route to Naples—"shall I ever see the again?"

"Not with my consent," growled the old fellow. "Rome's a humping."

"What! St. Peter's?" cried the young lady.

"Can't hold a candle to St. Paul's," grunted the alderman.

"And the Coliseum?"

"Very much out of repair," replied the alderman.

"The canal?"

"None."

"The illumination?"

"Stout."

"The pictures?"

"Smoky drabs."

"The artists?"

"Pshaw! now I know what you're thinking of—that confounded Claude Crayton, who was always darning you. Do you know that he had the impudence to ask my permission to pay his addresses to you?"

"And what did you tell him?" inquired the young lady eagerly.

"I told him go to the—"

"Hush!" said the young lady, putting her soft hand upon her guardian's lips. "I'm ashamed of you."

"I'm ashamed of you?" retorted the alderman, "for thinking twice of a shabby fellow without a penny—you who are to come of age in three months and into the possession of fifty thousand pounds?"

"The young lady was silent and looked out of the carriage window.

"What a dark gloomy valley this is we're passing through," she said, by way of changing the conversation. "It looks the very place for brigands. I wish you'd taken an escort."

"Pshaw!" said the alderman. "I don't believe in robbers. These stories of brigands are got up by the rascally, thieving Italians as an excuse for increasing the expense of travellers. But if you are to be robbed, I'd rather be plundered by fellows who make it a regular profession, than by rogues who pick your pockets under pretence of serving you. And the cardinals always run at the shot and come back after it was all over to console you and ask for drink money. Hallo there! Pietro!"

Pietro was the courier, and was riding on the box with the coachman. On hearing his name called, he turned round promptly, and answered with his usual servile grin:

"Excellency!"

"Did you load my pistols?"

"Yes, your highness, and put them in the pockets of the carriage."

Foreign and Colonial.

House of Assembly.

(Reported for the Globe.)

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1856.

Mr. Foley introduced a Bill to incorporate the Canada and Liverpool Mining Company.

Second reading on Wednesday next.

Mr. Duffresne introduced a Bill to amend the Act incorporating the L'Assomption River and Railway Company.

Second reading on Monday next.

Mr. Smith (Northumberland), introduced a Bill to incorporate the International Telegraph Company.

Second reading on Monday next.

Mr. Ferris introduced a Bill, entitled,
"An Act to enable John Watson, of the village of Ayr, in the County of Waterloo, to construct a Dam and Watercourse for manufacturing and other purposes, and to take all lands necessary therefor."

Second reading on Monday next.

Mr. Ferris introduced a Bill entitled,
"An Act to erect the Municipality of the village of Galt into that of a town."

Second reading this day week.

Mr. Dargie introduced a Bill to allow officers of Agricultural Associations to pay the Government grant to the purchase of seed grain, without previous applications to the Board of Agriculture, whenever they consider it expedient for the encouragement of Agriculture.

Hon. Mr. Drummond introduced a Bill to explain and amend the charter of the City Bank.

Mr. Biggs introduced a Bill to incorporate the Mount Pleasant Sanitary Association.

Hon. Mr. Cameron introduced a Bill to amend the law abolishing the right of Primogeniture in Upper Canada. Also, a Bill to amend the law relating to the sale of lands for taxes in Upper Canada. Also, a Bill in relation to Foreign Insurances.

Hon. Mr. Cameron introduced a Bill entitled, "An Act to alter the constitution of the Legislative Council by rendering the same elective."

Solicitor General Smith moved for leave to introduce a Bill to extend the time allowed by the charter of the Hamilton and Port Dover Railway Company for the construction of said railway.

Mr. Crawford moved for leave to introduce a Bill to incorporate the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway Company, and for other purposes.

Mr. Brown said he did not intend to offer any opposition to the first reading of the Bill, but there were very serious objections entertained to it on the part of private stockholders of the road, and he intended to ask the House at a future stage that those parties be heard by counsel against the principle of the Bill.

Hon. Mr. Merritt suggested that counsel might be heard by the Railroad Committee, instead of at the bar of the House.

Mr. Brown said he did not object to what was sought by the Bill, but it should not be carried out at the sacrifice of private interests. And when the rights of private parties were involved, he thought it better that they should be heard before the House.

The "all was then said" a first time.

Mr. Crawford moved that it be read a second time on Monday.

Mr. Brown said that the second reading would be put off at least for a fortnight.
The gentleman, who had put in his petition to be heard at the bar of the House, had $100,000 at stake, and he would stand that his counsel would require some time to prepare his brief.

Hon. Mr. Drummond did not see why it should not be read a second time on Monday, and referred to the Railroad Committee, and the discussion might come up on it, after it came back from the Committee.

Hon. Mr. Macdonald (Glengary), was afraid from his experience of the Railroad Committee, that private rights would not get much attention paid to them.

Mr. Crawford said he would change the day for the second reading to Thursday.

Mr. Brown again asking for a longer delay.

Hon. Mr. Cayley said that delay would defeat the object of the bill, and deprive the Company of the means of meeting their engagements.

After some further discussion, the motion for the second reading on Thursday was agreed to.

Mr. Evanturel moved for leave to introduce a Bill to place the Turpiko Roads in the vicinity of Quebec, under the control of two separate Commissioners.

Mr. Brown said the roads in Lower Canada should be placed on the same footing as in Upper Canada, and not be supported by the Province.

After some further conversation, the Bill was ordered to a second reading on Monday.

Mr. Hartman moved to refer to the Committee appointed to inquire as to the best means of suppressing the vice of drunkenness, all petitions presented to this House during this Session, praying for further legislation on that subject—Carried.

Mr. Bowes moved the second reading of his Bill to amend the Separate School Act.
After a short conversation, the mover at the request of several members consented to postpone the order till Wednesday.

Hon. Mr. Cayley then moved, that the bill to amend the act establishing the freedom of banking, should be read a second time. The hon. member explained that the amendment was rendered necessary by the accidental omission from the face of the notes of certain words demanded by the act—the words "and not elsewhere."

Mr. Young also stated his opinion that the notes ought to express the place where they were payable.

Mr. Macdonald said that in these cases the Government had been the party to blame, and they ought to be made to pay the paper.

The bill then passed through the second reading and was ordered to be read a third time on Monday.

SECOND READINGS.

The following bills were then read a second time, and referred to Committees:—

"Bill to amend Railway Clauses Consolidation Act." (Mr. Valois.)

"Bill to amend law of evidence in Upper Canada." (Hon. Mr. Cameron.)

"Bill to vest a certain road allowance in Messrs. Mads & Seymour." (Mr. Sidney Smith.)

"Bill to amend charter of Montreal Bank."
(Mr. Holton.)

"Bill to enforce registration of titles in the townships of Lower Canada." (Mr. T.
Fortier.)

ORDNANCE LANDS.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Cayley.

The bill relative to claims on Ordnance Lands was read a second time, and passed the high Committee.

This House then adjourned at half-past ten.

MONDAY 10th March, 1856.

The Speaker took the chair at three o'clock.

About 75 petitions were presented—most of them praying for a Prohibitory Liquor Law.

Mr. Galt introduced a bill to correct an error in the act passed last session, to amend and extend the act incorporating the St.
Lawrence and Champlain Railroad Company.

The standing orders of the House being suspended in regard to it, the bill was read a second time, and ordered to be read a third time this day week.

Hon. Mr. Cameron introduced a bill to amend and consolidate the acts of incorporation of the Commercial Bank of the Midland District.

Second reading on Wednesday next.

Hon. Mr. Cameron also introduced a bill to incorporate the Canadian Order of the Old Fellows, in connection with the Manchester Unity.

Second reading on Wednesday next.

Sol. Gen. Smith introduced a bill to incorporate a Company under the name of the North Western Railway Company, to construct a railway from Galt to the waters of Lake Huron.

Second reading on Thursday next.

Mr. Jackson introduced a bill to incorporate the town of Sydenham, in the county of Grey.

Second reading on Monday next.

Mr. Sarnson introduced a bill to amend the law relating to Patents for Inventions.

Second reading on Thursday next.

Hon. Mr. Drummond introduced a bill to provide for the holding of an additional term of the Appeal Side of the Court of Queen's Bench for Lower Canada, in the present year. The hon. gentleman explained that this had been rendered necessary by the Judges being so much engaged with the Seigniorial questions.

Second reading to-morrow.

Mr. Clapton introduced a bill to amend the Lower Canada Municipal and Road Act of 1855.

Second reading on Monday next.

Mr. Aikins enquired of the Ministry whether it was their intention to enforce payment of the interest already due on Loans effected by municipalities from the Municipal Loan Fund?

Hon. Mr. Drummond said it was [Hear, hear], and he wished to say that in Upper Canada, the payments had been made very regularly.

On motion of Mr. Dorion [Montreal].

The House went again into committee on the mode of granting Patern Licenses.—Mr.
Bellingham in the chair.

The first resolution was adopted. On the second resolution being moved.

Mr. Hartman said he had given notice of his intention to move the restriction of the bill to be founded on those resolutions to Lower Canada, and to introduce a bill embodying the Prohibitory principle, for Upper Canada.

[Hear, hear.] A large majority of members for Upper Canada as well as the people were in favor of Prohibition, the Upper Canadian vote the other night having been 38 to 15 for that principle. He trusted then that gentlemen from Lower Canada would not throw any obstacle in the way of a Prohibitory Liquor Law being enacted for Upper Canada.

If it was objected that that would be sectional legislation, he replied that that was the case now, there being one license law for Upper and another for Lower Canada. They legislated in that sectional way every day.

Mr. De Witt considered the House was going in the wrong direction, when it kept on licensing what caused more loss of life and misery, than war or pestilence. The resolutions now proposed were of no use in the world.

Mr. Felton moved that the words "in less quantities than three gallons," be struck out.
Mr. MacKenzie commented on the incoher-encies of the hon. member for Wolfe [Mr.
Felton]. Last year that gentleman was for no liquor at all. Now he was for good liquor, and plenty of it. [Laughter.] He considered the state of this question as another illustration of the difficulty of legislating, while the present Union existed. He approved, however, of the proposition of the hon. member for North York [Mr. Hartman], and he could not suppose any difficulty would be thrown in the way, when it appeared from the role of last week, that two-thirds of the Upper Canada members wanted the Main Law for Upper Canada.

Mr. Masson.—But they shan't get it.

Mr. MacKenzie was sure that they would get it. It was calculated to raise mankind in the scale of existence, and it would be sure to come in the end.

Mr. Gould said he had no confidence in the license system, and opposed Mr. Felton's amendment.

Dr. Clarke considered the reason why the License Law had failed in Upper Canada, was, that it was in the hands of the municipalities. It would work better, if placed in the hands of the Government.

Mr. Gould said that, in Upper Canada, it had only been within the last five years that it had been in the hands of the municipalities.

Mr. Felton's amendment was then put and lost. An amendment by Mr. Powell to substitute 5 gallons for 3, as the quantity under which a license was required, was carried.

Hon. Mr. Cameron proposed an amendment, vesting the power of granting licenses, not in the Municipal Councils, but in License Inspectors appointed by the municipalities.

Atty. Gen. Macdonald was of opinion that License Inspectors should not be appointed directly or indirectly by the people, but that they should be officers receiving salaries and appointed by the Government.

Mr. Gamble would not admit that our present system had failed. The licenses under the old system were granted by the magistrates, who were not appointed by the popular voice.
But he believed the system was much better now than then. He was in favor, however, of having the Inspectors appointed, not directly by the people, but by the municipal bodies, and he would also like a minimum rate fixed, below which licenses would not be granted.

Mr. Cameron's amendment was then put,
and carried.

Some other amendments having been made, Mr. Hartman moved that any bill to be found on these resolutions be restricted in its operation to Lower Canada.

If they were carried, he would follow it up with the introduction of a Prohibitory Bill for Upper Canada.

TUESDAY, March 11, 1856.

A number of Petitions in favor of a Prohibitory liquor law, were presented from various parts of the country. Also, a petition from certain inhabitants of the County of York, praying for the repeal of the Separate School Act.

Time for receiving Private Bills, extended to the 11th of April, and the time for receiving reports on such bills.

Mr. Drummond rose and said, that the Government having taken into consideration the vote of the House last night, had come to the conclusion to throw themselves on the consideration of the House, and ask for an adjournment until next Thursday, that they might consult with the leader of the Government; and also consult among themselves as to the course they ought to pursue. They would have been fully prepared to state to day what their determination was, had it not been that the Head of the Government was so unwell as to be confined to his bed. He considered that the duty which they owed to themselves, rendered this step necessary. He was also charged to inform the House, and he trusted that it would not be taken as an act of discourtesy, that the members of the Executive Council who were charged with the presentation of a certain Address to His Excellency, had not thought proper to present that Address, and that it was their intention to endeavour to procure a reservation of the resolution on which that Address was founded. He would therefore give notice that on Thursday next, he would move that the resolution to which he referred should be resented.

He then moved, that when the House adjourned, it should stand adjourned till Thursday next.

Mr. J. S. Macdonald thought the course pursued by the Government was a most extraordinary one. They professed to be in such a state of disruption, that they were compelled to ask for time to consider their course, and yet they were still going on with the business of the House to day. The usual course was for them to adjourn at once.

Hon. John A. McDonald said his hon. friend opposite had mistaken the course which the Hon. Attorney General intended to pursue.

The next motion of his hon. colleague will be to move that this House do now adjourn.

DR. J. W. KERMOTT'S
VEGETABLE
Pulmonary Balm;
A Safe and Effective Cure for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Asthma, Incipient Consumption, &c.
THIS Medicine operates by producing a free and copious expectoration, and by imparting vigor to the absorbent vessels, changing them from a diseased to a healthy state. Hundreds of cases might be mentioned of persons who have been cured of the grave by their medical attendance, and by the use of this valuable remedy are now in the enjoyment of perfect health.
Dose: One teaspoonful from 5 to six times per day, or oftener if the cough is severe.
Price 75 Cents per Bottle.
Prepared, wholesale and retail, at the Electric Medical Dispensary, Dundas Street, London, C. W.
LONDON, 15th September, 1855.

DR. J. W. KERMOTT,
DEAR Sir,—Being informed that you are preparing your Vegetable Pulmonary Balm, in order that the public at large may appreciate its virtues, I cheerfully submit to you the following statement of a case, that may be of use to you.
In the Autumn of 1852 my oldest son was attacked with pain in the chest, shoulders and side, accompanied with a very severe cough. We used every means within our power, employed the most skillful physicians, and after their vain attempts, had recourse to some of the most popular nostrums for the cure of consumption, but all to no purpose. He gradually grew worse. In 1853 he became so feeble and emaciated as to be obliged to keep his bed, his feet and legs became swollen, purrified profusely at night, expected dark fecid corruption, had chills and fever alternately, in fact all who knew or saw him pronounced him in the last state of consumption, and advised that he should be put to rest.
At his own request we sent for you, but without the slightest hope of receiving any benefit, still as you have flattered him with a hope, he commenced using your Balm, and after taking some half dozen bottles, began slowly to recover, till in three months' time he was restored to perfect health. One year has elapsed since the cure was effected, and he is still hale and sound.
Ever grateful, I am, dear Sir,
Yours respectfully,
JAMES DICKINSON.

LIST OF J. W. KERMOTT'S MEDICINES, NAME:—
Vegetable Pulmonary Balm, a safe and a certain cure for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, &c.

Vegetable Tonic Mixture, a mild yet powerful Tonic in all cases of Debility, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Weakness of the Stomach.
Worms, &c., or Children's Indian Worm Killer, an unparalleled Destroyer of Worms.
Black Ointment, the Best for all kinds of Anti-Bilious Pills, the Best purgative now known. These Pills combine power with mildness of action, and in no case produce subsequent constipation.
Black Ointment, or Healing Salve, for the speedy cure of Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever, Sores, &c.
Extract of Blackberry, a Vegetable Summer Complaint Cure, of a certain remedy in Dysentery, Bloody Flux, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, &c.
Rheumatic or Nerve and Bone Liniment, the best external application known for rheumatism.

Read the following from M. Anderson, Esq., Mayor of London:— LONDON, Feb. 14, 1855.
To Dr. KERMOTT.
DEAR Sir,—Your Vegetable Tonic Mixture and Sassafras Pills, have had a most salutary effect on me. I was for several years troubled with Dyspepsia, and Indigestion, during which time I tried many remedies, consulted the most popular physicians at home and abroad, but to no purpose. Two years since, I tried your Pills and Balm, and they did me more good than all the other remedies I had used. Since which time I have enjoyed perfect health.
I would, therefore for the good of the community, cheerfully recommend your medicines as all they are represented to be.
I am, your, &c.,
M. ANDERSON,
Mayor of London, C. W.
LONDON, 30th January, 1855.

DR. J. W. KERMOTT.
DEAR Sir,—Permit me to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for the invaluable cure you have effected in me. I know of no way by which I can sufficiently recompense you for having taken me from the margin of the grave and restored me to perfect health, contrary to my own expectations, those of my friends, and to every expectation, contrary to the very laws of nature. I was first taken with common cold, which terminated into what you termed your Pills and Balm, and they did me more good than all the other remedies I had used. Since which time I have enjoyed perfect health.
I would, therefore for the good of the community, cheerfully recommend your medicines as all they are represented to be.
